CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE,

letters, original binding of stout oak boards, leather, with massive metal knobbed corners and centre ornaments* large folio. SÆC. XV
- * * The superb miniature initials in this volume are of the richest rococo style of the Late Italian Renaissance school, and represent chiefly Scenes connected with the Life of Christ and the Virgin.
One represents the Trinity and is particularly fine, measuring 7½ by 5 in. Others are as large and some smaller, but all are the work of the same fine artist, and the marginal floreate illuminations are very rich.

sm. 8vo. R. Young for Fr. Constable, 1638

- 67 BREVIARIUM SECUNDUM CONSUECUDINEM ROMANAE ECCLESIAE, cum PSALTERIO, Calendario, etc. a RICHLY DECORATED MANUSCRIPT ON PURE ITALIAN VELLUM (529 leaves, 9 by 8½ in.) very finely written in Italian gothic characters in red and black, double columns, 27 lines; the first page of the Psalter is decorated with ornaments, an historiated initial, a shield, Gules bearing a Pomegranate Or, with 2 leaves vert, and inscriptions within scrolls, "Da Glām Deo," and "Stulti aliquando Sapiētāe"; on reverse of this same page a splendidly decorated border of floreate design with an historiated initial; the page beginning Advent has three-quarters of the border finely decorated with small circular miniatures of a Pope, a hare, and a bird; two pages in the "Feria" have circular miniatures within decorations in the lower margins; the page beginning the "Ordo Breviarii" has a very splendid border of arabesques and floreate scrolls, with two miniatures, one of the Apostle Paul with a sword, the other of his conversion, in which is introduced a white horse with a red saddle; the page beginning the "Proprium Sanctorum" has also a richly decorated floreate border with a miniature initial; before the "Commune Sanctorum" is a LARGE AND VERY FINELY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURE REPRESENTING THE LAST SUPPER (5 by 4 in.), within a rich arabesque and scroll border, with a somewhat similar border on the opposite page containing a brazen spread eagle in the lower margin; besides these there are many finely decorated pages with historiated and ornamental initials, as well as numerous pen letters with elegant marginal crozier-like designs in violet and red inks (two ll. are slightly shrivelled, and some lines of text faded, but these are insignificant blemishes), modern boarded velvet morocco back (clumsily bound)

thick sm. 4to. SÆC. XV

* * The miniatures and decorations of this volume are the work of one hand throughout, and evidently that of a first-rate Italian cinquecento artist. The miniature of the Last Supper is very clever, and the harmony of the colouring and grouping extremely fine. The small historiated miniatures are also very highly finished. The border decorations are in the best Renaissance style, and the whole volume is thoroughly artistic.

minated MINIATURES on 4 ll. AT THE BEGINNING OF THE VOLUME, 18 FINE LARGE PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED INITIALS, consisting chiefly of floreate scroll designs, mostly with decorative borders, and numerous small illuminated initials and ornamental pen letters, oak boards, sides of original leather stamped with ornaments, AND
THE ARMS OF K. HENRY VIII AND Q. CATHERINE OF ARAGON, inlaid, but in excellent preservation (repaired by Zaehnsdorf)

sm. 4to. SÆC. XIII-XIV

* * * AN EARLY AND VERY INTERESTING ENGLISH SARUM HORAE. The Calendar is written in small gothic letter, on 6 ll. in red and black, and is very full of English saints, with many details. There is a late obit in April on St. George's Day, "Obitus Isabellae Godynogh, Aº dni MCCCCXIII" in a later hand. The text begins imperfectly, and the last 8 ll. are in a different and slightly later hand. The 7 miniatures are contemporary English, and although worn with age, are remarkable and worthy of attention.
They illustrate (1-2) The Annunciation, Gabriel and the Virgin, on opposite pages (3-4) the Apostles Peter and Paul (5-6) a King and Queen enthroned and crowned, the former Pontifically, with fleur-de-lis on his robe; the latter with a fleur-de-lis crown, suckling an infant, (5) on reverse of the latter a representation of the Deity.
THESE ARE VERY INTERESTING AND RARE SPECIMENS OF LATE
XIIITH CENTURY ENGLISH RELIGIOUS ART. It seems most probable that it was originally in the Library of Queen Katherine of Aragon.

- 178 HORAE BEATAE MARIAE VIRGINIS, CUM CALENDARIO, RICHLY ILLUMI-NATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (90 ll. 7½ by 5 in.) gothic letter, long lines, 20 to a full page, Calendar in red and black, red rubrics
by a French scribe and illuminator, 13 FINE full-page PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURES, within rich floreated borders, with opposite borders of similar decoration, 10 small initial miniatures of Saints, etc. many fine large and small illuminated ornamental initials, etc. old French calf, the sides covered with rich gilt interlaced scroll line tooling, in the Grolier manner, g. e. 8vo. SÆC. XV

* * * A well-written, well-preserved and BRILLIANTLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT. The miniatures represent conventionally the usual subjects connected with Christ and the Virgin. It is stated the MS. belonged formerly to Mary Queen of England, "Bloody Mary," as indicated by the following inscription written on fly leaf:

No. 179.

- 179 HORAE BEATAE MARIAE VIRGINIS, CUM CALENDARIO, RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (109 ll. 7 by 4½ in.) written in very neat gothic letter (semi-bâtardes), red and black, long lines, 27 to a full page, by a FRENCH SCRIBE AND ILLUMINATOR; the Calendar written in red and blue, with gold ornaments within borders of rich floreate designs, interspersed with charming miniatures of the Signs of the Zodiac and Occupations of the Months; every page of the text has a ¾ or outside border of EXCEEDINGLY FINE FLOREATE SCROLL WORK; 12 VERY SPLENDID LARGE ILLUMINATED MINIATURES, within rich floral borders, and 19 small miniatures of Evangelists, Saints, etc.; the text decorated throughout, modern French green morocco gilt

sm. 8vo. late XV CENT.

- * * A VERY BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT WITH REMARKABLE MINIATURES. The figures are all drawn to a very large scale, and appear to be of the school of John Poyet or Bourdichon, and somewhat similar to the Heures d'Anne de Bretagne. Rich burnished gold is lavished on the figures, and those clothed in armour are exceptionally brilliant. The figures are finely drawn, the expressions good, the female costumes graceful. A peculiar feature is that some of the female figures are decolletées. The backgrounds are mostly interiors, but where landscapes occur the perspective is good. The large miniatures represent the following subjects: (i) THE ANGEL GABRIEL being sent from Heaven to announce the Birth of Christ to the Virgin, attended by 4 virgins splendidly robed and crowned, the three persons of the Trinity in the heights, a monkey riding a monster in bottom margin [see PLATE]. (ii) THE VISITATION, Mary and Elizabeth, landscape background with 2 cottages on a rock and trees, a grotesque figure in the borders. (iii) THE VIRGIN, THE DEITY, and half nude Christ bearing a staff cross, monkey riding a monster in lower margin. (iv) THE SHEPHERDS, the large central figure bathed in light from the emanence of the angel above, another playing on a Savoyard pipe, landscape with sheep in background, grotesque animal below. (v) THE GIFTS OF THE MAGI, large central figures of the Virgin and Child and an old man. (vi) THE CIRCUMCISION, the high priest richly robed and tiaraed, grotesque and bird in margin. (vii) MASSACRE OF THE INNOCENTS, large figures of two women, and a wounded child, the soldier, an old man with a flowing beard, clad in brilliant gold armour, with a huge sword, lower border only. (viii) A SEMI-NUDE CHRIST, AND THE VIRGIN (decolletée), the Deity in the heavens above, grotesque in lower margin. (ix) KING DAVID, a large figure, superbly robed in gold and ermine, and wearing a brilliant crown of gold and gems, Counsellors in the background, lower border only, in which is a monkey riding a monster. (X) CHRIST BEARING HIS CROSS, the three Maries following, large figure brilliantly enlumined, a Roman soldier in gold coat armour, lower border only with a griffin. (XI) PENTECOST, Mary and Joseph as central figures, the Apostles behind. (XII) JOB AND HIS FRIENDS, Job half nude, a messenger speaking, richly costumed, landscape and building in background, lower border only. The borders of the miniatures are very richly decorated, and are arranged in various shapes of hearts, triangles, lozenges, squares, etc. IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO FIND A CHOICER SPECIMEN OF THE FRENCH ILLUMINATED ART OF THIS PERIOD AND SCHOOL THAN THIS.

180 ILLUMINATED MINIATURES AND INITIAL LETTERS OF THE 15TH CENTURY, mounted in a vol. and bound in green morocco gilt folio

* * * A collection of 91 large and finely painted and richly decorated Initial Letters, consisting chiefly of tasteful floral designs in blue, green, red and white, on thick grounds of burnished gold, and 12 VERY LARGE INITIAL MINIATURES REPRESENTING FIGURES OF THE APOSTLES (measuring generally 6 in. square), VERY FINELY PAINTED within oval frames of slate, red, yellow, green, white and blue, with floreate decorations, also on rich burnished gold grounds, the work of a superior Italian artist, and cut from a large Antiphonary of the period.

181 ILLUMINATED MINIATURES AND INITIAL LETTERS OF THE XVTH CENTURY, mounted in a large scrap-book, half bound atlas folio

* * * This collection comprises 90 large and richly decorated floreate Initials on rich gold grounds, including eight specially large and fine: a P, I, S, M, and C being particularly good. It also has five very large Initial Miniatures of Apostles, and a very large and elaborate ornamental Pen-letter. But the most interesting are the FIVE WHOLE-PAGE PAINTINGS, of which the first in the volume represents the ASCENSION OF CHRIST, represented in a large initial V before the Antiphon (Viri Galilei quid). Christ ascending, gracefully robed, half of his body in the top margin, the Twelve Apostles with Mary in the centre gazing upward, in rich costumes of red, blue, yellow, green and mauve, the decorations of the letter itself in the elaborate florid manner, the whole on a richly burnished gold ground, the miniature measuring 12 by 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. The page is surrounded by an elaborate border of florid arabesques, the whole leaf measuring 23 by 16 in. (II) THE NATIVITY, a large initial P (10 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. with extensions down the whole margin), a tent with the Virgin and Child, Joseph kissing the infant's feet, an ox and an ass feeding from a trough, angels above and a shepherd behind the tent; the borders of rich floreate arabesques, in which are introduced figures of the wise men, shepherds and sheep, a man playing a Savoyard wind pipe, etc. [see PLATE]. (III) THE TRINITY in an initial B (11 $\frac{1}{4}$ by 9 in.), three figures above before an altar with two lighted candles in two gold candlesticks; below, the three angels appearing to Abraham outside his house, elaborate marginal decorations, with two female heads. (IV) THE LAST

SUPPER in an initial O (10 by 11 in.), Christ seated with the Twelve round a circular table on three-legged stools, with rich marginal florid ornaments. (v) THE OFFERINGS OF THE MAGI in an initial C (8 by 8 in.), with a rich florid border in which are introduced in the lower margin figures of the three kings on camels, one on horseback, preceded by their servant with the presents on two camels, with a shepherd guide. All taken from an Antiphonary of the XVth Century of the late Rococo Italian Renaissance School.

182 ILLUMINATED ORNAMENTAL INITIALS OF THE 14TH AND 15TH CENTURIES

* * A COLLECTION OF 438 FINE LARGE ORNAMENTAL INITIAL LETTERS, beautifully painted and richly decorated, chiefly with flower designs, the letters themselves being chiefly painted in blue and purple, on grounds of thick gold; cut from Italian and French Antiphonaries, and arranged in alphabets from A to U; also FOUR FINE LARGE INITIAL MINIATURES OF APOSTLES of Italian origin, by a clever artist, in colours of red and yellow, blue and green on a gold ground, measuring 6 by 5 in. A VALUABLE AND INTERESTING COLLECTION, mounted on thick cardboard, and bound in new half morocco folio

183 Imitatio Christi. [At end]: "Finita e questa opera utile . . decta della Imitatione di xpō & del dispergo delle cose mōdano: con uno divoto tractato del Sacramento dell altare composto per Messer Giovanni Gersone," half vellum sm. 4to

Impresso in Firenze per Ant. Mischomini (with device), anno 1494

* * A rare edition but apparently imperfect, having on the front page the beautiful large Florentine woodcut of the "MONTE DELLE ORATIONE" (inlaid), text on reverse and a leaf of text opposite; then follows C. 1 proceeding to i in 8's, making in all 58 ll. Hain reports it but had not seen it. (Sold not subject to return).
